

Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, South Dakota is celebrating its centennial year; and,

WHEREAS, South Dakota was founded with hard work, perseverance, dedication to duty and concern for one's fellow man; and,

WHEREAS, Each local community is blessed with a rich history, enduring heritage and special people that have played important roles in that history and heritage; and,

WHEREAS, The community of Lead is proud of its history and hard-working citizens that have given so much to Lead and to South Dakota during their lifetimes; and,

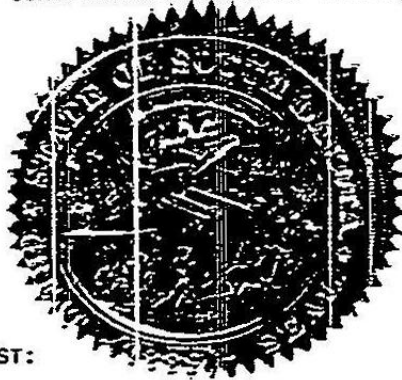

WHEREAS, Felix Ferrero, oldest war veteran living in Lead, South Dakota, and Emily K. Doney, oldest English person living in Lead, South Dakota, have devoted their lives to the betterment of their community, the caring and sharing with family and friends, and the day-to-day giving and loving which make South Dakota a great state in which to live and work; and,

WHEREAS, Felix Ferrero and Emily K. Doney are two of the citizens that Lead and South Dakota are so proud of:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim November 12, 1988 as in South Dakota, and I join the city of Lead in thanking them for their many contributions to their country, state, and community.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Eighth Day of November, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Eight

GEORGE S. MICKELSON, GOVERNOR
